“The Division is pleased to offer open houses at the Drayden African American Schoolhouse each month so guests can learn more about this important piece of our county's African American educational history,” says Karen Stone, Manager of the St. Mary's County Museum Division. “We further appreciate the continuing support of the volunteers who staff it for us, most of whom are members of the UCAC.”

Volunteers will be available on site during the open houses to share stories about the schoolhouse's history with visitors. All ages are welcome, and admission is free. The St. Mary's County Museum Division also offers special programs for school, bus, and other tour groups who would like to schedule a visit to the Drayden site.
