

Tuesday January 29, 1957

At the general meeting held today Commissioners Alvey and Guy, with Mr. Sterling were present. Mr. Stone is on vacation.

Mr. J.J. Johnson, County Agent was in with Mr. Allen Bryant, new Assistant County Agent. Mr. Johnson requested that Mr. Bryant be allowed to use the Asst. Agent's expenses from Aug to Dec 31, 1956 for 4-H Club work, but since that money is allocated to the expense account of the Asst. County Agent, and during that period there was no in that position, it was ruled not allowable and Mr. Johnson so advised. Mr. Johnson says his staff needs additional room and that office may be moved into the Court House on completion of the building.

Trial Magistrate Abell asked that Mrs. Boyd's increase in salary which has been promised for July, be granted her now. Board will consider it.

Mr. C.B. Greenwell appeared for the new tenant at Abell's Wharf Club who desires to place a sign on Alms House grounds, showing way to Club house. Commissioners' permission given, he must secure ~~permits from~~ SRC also.

Mr. W.B. Brown, Tele. Logan 7-8240 Oxon Hill, Md., asks to be notified when Commissioners and Mr. Thompson inspect the roads at Hollywood Shores. Until these roads are accepted by the County the property owners there cannot secure FHA loans for any improvements on property, etc. Mr. Alvey will contact Mr. Thompson on Feb 5 on this matter.

Mr. Miller advised by letter to have all ~~Voting~~ Machines moved from storage in Lexington Park to their proper storage place in the Court House at once. Mr. Sterling telephoned about this matter previously.

Letter to Dr. ^Fraser, Director, State Dept of Health advising that Commissioners favor adoption of Resolution in letter of Jan 21, 57 regarding Registrars of Vital Statistics- providing that the County Health Dept be the sole Registrar.

Mr. Guy left for Chicago to attend a convention of the American Road Building Association. He was accompanied by Mr. Thompson.

Meeting adjourned at 2 pm
