

November 29, 1960

All officials present today.

J.D. Bond was in for a morning session to discuss the Bauer Road, St. Mary's City which he will check and report on later.

Delegates Frank Combs and former delegate J. Frank Raley were in for a general discussion

Letter was written to Rev. Francis Scherer, S.J., pastor Holy Angels Church recommending a 50 ft set back with added recommendation that the new church be built at least 100 ft from present road. Copy of this letter was enclosed for the architect of the church.

The Commissioners decided they would sell the radios which have been removed from the cars of the deputies after they consult with M.C. Thompson, Director of Civil Defense

Meeting adjourned at noon.
